

From the Office of the Dean of Students:

The Dean of Students Office at Fort Scott Community College has a long and rich history and tradition, for decades the office has provided support and advocacy on behalf of students. The Office assists students in the resolution of problems, provides information about, and referral to campus resources, and promotes initiatives that address students’ needs and interests. This handbook provides you with an overview of the various offices and programs associated with the Dean’s Office. This handbook is filled with helpful information on what services and resources are available to you as a student, important campus policies, and contacts to other offices on campus. More information is available at our website: (www.fortscott.edu/students).

Your success is our priority and we hope you’ll take advantage of the many resources our campus has to offer. Go Greyhounds!

STUDENT  SERVICES

Mission Statement

Through departmental collaboration, professional guidance, reliable support services, and a welcoming environment, Fort Scott Community College’s Student Services commits to assisting students in achieving their educational objectives.

INTRODUCTION

This handbook is provided as a guideline for cooperation among the student residents, resident assistants, security and Director of Student Life. In order for the dorm staff to communicate information regarding your whereabouts to those seeking you, it will be necessary for you to keep the dorm director informed as much as possible. A two-way communication between students and the dorm staff will be the objective of the program.

DORM HANDBOOK OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the policies within this handbook reflect the College's desire to foster a caring community of learners preparing to assume responsibility in a diverse and technologically advancing society.

The Fort Scott Community College Student Handbook Objectives:

- to stress the safety and well-being of Fort Scott Community College and its students, faculty, and staff, including the enforcement of VAWA and SaVE Act provision, Section 304; (*see information below)
- to maintain a safe campus, where students can enjoy their social lives;
- to provide confidential support for students seeking treatment for alcohol and/or drug-related problems;
- to be in compliance with federal statutes, Kansas laws, and Bourbon County ordinances;
- provide an atmosphere free from coercion to abuse alcohol, illegal or prescription drugs; and
- provide students with information about confidential on- and off-campus resources to address issues related to alcohol and drug use and abuse.

RESIDENCY STATUS

Residents will be admitted and allowed to live in college-owned housing under the following conditions:

- They have a completed dorm contract, dorm application, dorm medical form and $125 application fee on file in the FSCC Business Office.
- They are in good standing with regard to school discipline. They follow all guidelines of the Dorm Contract and Dorm Handbook.
- They are enrolled in and paid full tuition and fees for a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours.
- They are maintaining a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 1.75 for the first semester at FSCC and a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 for each subsequent semester at FSCC. Students not meeting the minimum GPA for the current semester are required to meet with an advisor and establish an ‘academic plan’. Students will be given one academic semester to meet the minimum GPA needed to be a resident in the dorms.

Students are expected to set an appointment with an advisor when their GPA falls below the minimum requirements, attend class consistently, and show satisfactory academic progress during the semester while on an academic plan; failure to comply may result in a dismissal from the dorms. Students who do not meet the minimum GPA earned during the most recently completed semester while on an ‘academic plan’ will be subject to dismissal from the dorms.

DORM GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are established to facilitate the functionality of the dorms.

1. CONDUCT OF RESIDENTS:

The dorm director, resident assistants, the College campus security staff and the maintenance personnel are employed by the College and are responsible for maintaining order in the college housing. The student residents are expected to be responsible individuals and conduct themselves in a manner that shows respect for the rights and privacy of others. Any vandalism to property, excessive rowdiness, insubordination to employees, or infringement on the rights of other residents will be subject to disciplinary action.

2. ALCOHOLIC AND OTHER DRUGS POLICIES:

The college maintains a drug-free educational environment and requires all students to remain free of the unlawful and/or inappropriate use of controlled or illegal substances. The unlawful possession, use, purchase, or distribution of alcohol on College property or as part of any College activity is prohibited. The unlawful possession, use, purchase, or distribution of illicit drugs, controlled substances (including stimulants, depressants, narcotics, or hallucinogenic drugs), or paraphernalia—or the misuse of prescription drugs, including sharing, procuring, buying, or the use of prescription medication for which the student does not have a valid prescription or using in a manner different from the prescribed use, or by someone other than the person for whom it was prescribed—is prohibited in the dorm or on any College property is prohibited and a violation of FSCC Policy and the Laws of the state of Kansas. The violation may result in expulsion from the dorm and arrest by Law Enforcement. Smoking/tobacco use is not permitted anywhere, in any campus-owned buildings, including dormitory rooms.

Reasonable grounds for requiring a student and room search may include but are not limited to, the following:

- Incoherent communication or inexplicable behavior
- Suspicious odors on person, clothing, and/or other property
- Possession of drug paraphernalia
- Assaults and fighting
- Arrest, citation, or conviction for a substance-related offense by college or public law enforcement authorities
- Observation of substance use or physical symptoms or manifestations of impairment, incoherency, or erratic, inexplicable conduct
- A report of substance abuse or use provided by a reliable and credible source

Available Assistance for Abuse Problems

Students needing help responding to alcohol or drug problems are encouraged to speak with the campus advising offices, these professionals can help review the situation and make referrals to outside agencies or inside resources that respond to alcohol and drug abuse.

advising@fortscott.edu
620-223-2700 ext. 3630

3. FIREARMS/WEAPONS:

The use or possession of any weapon or firearm (pistol, rifle, shotgun, pellet gun, BB gun, knives, etc.) or any explosives (fireworks, ammunition, etc.) on the FSCC Campus is prohibited and is a violation of Federal Law Title 18, U.S.C., Section 922. Violations will result in dismissal from the Dorm and may result in prosecution in Federal Court and dismissal from the College. The use or possession of paintball guns is also prohibited.

4. DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES:

The College has identified some specific behavior that is considered a violation of dorm policy. Included in this behavior is burning of candles/incense in your room, possession of alcohol, possession of illegal drug or drug paraphernalia, and possession of weapons. A list of violations and a description of the related disciplinary action(s) are explained in the Fort Scott Community College Violation Report.

5. ROOM INSPECTION:

Thorough inspections will be conducted randomly. Cursory inspections of rooms may be done on a daily basis. If living area is unmannerly, needs cleaning, or is damaged, the resident will be asked to rectify the situation. Your living area is expected to be clean and orderly at all times. Failure to maintain a clean room may result in a fine. Records of inspections are kept for this purpose. The lobby and other building areas are expected to be clean each day.

6. SEARCH OF STUDENT ROOMS:

FSCC maintains the right to enter a student's room for health and safety reasons or when school officials suspect violations of FSCC Policy or local, state, federal laws exist. Room searches may include, but shall not be limited to, searches for contraband, firearms, alcohol, drugs, or other illegal substances or items. Searches may include a search of luggage, backpacks, clothing cubicles/drawers or any other container or location within the room, hall or unit. Regular searches of public areas of the dorm will be conducted using a Canine Unit.

7. THEFT OF STUDENT PROPERTY:

The College is not liable for the theft of, loss of, or damage to the personal property of the student. The protection of personal property is the student's responsibility and can be enhanced by keeping doors locked. FSCC Security personnel monitor the Dorm area and assist with security issues. Students are encouraged to carry renter's insurance.

8. VISITORS/GUESTS:

Visitors are allowed from 9 a.m. to midnight, Sunday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 1 a.m., Friday and Saturday. Quiet hours will be from 11 p.m. to 9 a.m. daily. Residents of the Dorm are responsible for the actions of their visitors/guests. Guests whose behavior is unacceptable will be required to leave the dorm and/or the College premises. All visitors are expected to vacate the Dorm prior to the closing hours as described in this section. Baby sitting is not permitted.

There are limited provisions for overnight guests. Overnight guests may be allowed in the dorm under two (2) circumstances:

1. Recruits brought in by college staff.
2. Guests of residents of the Dorm (who have been checked in by a resident assistant or the dorm director).

If a staff member of the college brings in a potential student as a guest of the College, then the College will absorb the cost of the room.

If a student resident of the dorm brings in visitors or parents, then the college has established a minimum cost of $15 per night.

It should be understood that guests in the dorm are allowed only on a space available basis. All guests will be checked in through the dorm director or designated representative.

9. BURNING OF SUBSTANCES:

The burning of any substances, including candles, incense, cigarettes/pipes/cigars, and/or oil lamps, is prohibited in housing units or buildings. (Spray and stick air fresheners may be used instead of candles.)

10. HALL AND ROOM DAMAGE:

Damage to or theft of college property in the commons area and rooms is the joint responsibility of the occupants sharing the facility or room. The Director of Student Life will conduct an investigation to discover details of the incident. If a guilty party is not determined, all occupants will be billed for the damage or theft. Furniture in the lounges and other public areas of the residence hall is for use by all residents and their guests. Students moving furniture from any area of the building, including the room, will be subject to disciplinary action and/or may be prosecuted for theft.

11. DAMAGE TO THE DORMITORY ROOMS OR EQUIPMENT:

Each resident will be held responsible for all damage to the facility and furnishings. If individual responsibility cannot be determined, the cost of repair or replacement, along with possible monetary fines, will be assessed to all occupants in the hall or unit. Any damage to the facility or its furnishings should be reported immediately to the dorm director.

12. DISCIPLINARY VIOLATIONS

Disciplinary action(s) for violations outlined in the Fort Scott Community College Violation Report are listed below. This list includes, but is not limited to, some specific behavior that is considered a violation of dorm policy.

* Referred to the Dean of Student Services.

 Students who are expelled from the dorm are restricted from visiting the dorms and/or using the dorm parking lots. Violators are subject to trespassing charges. Additional disciplinary action (including suspension/expulsion from school) may be administered by the Dean of Student Services.

 All request for fees to be waived must be submitted to the Dean of Student Services within 10 days of checking out of the dorm.

Additional disciplinary actions are listed below:

• ADMONITION:

An oral statement that a student or group is violating the Rules of Conduct, and that further instances of misconduct may result in additional disciplinary action.

• LETTER OF APOLOGY:

A requirement may be made for a formal letter of apology, either public or private, to an individual, an outside agency or the College.

• WRITTEN WARNING

A written warning to the student filed with the dorm director noting that further violations may result in additional disciplinary action.

• RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS:

This sanction may involve specified conditions to be performed or completed at the expense of the student including, but not limited to:

Removal from or administrative withdrawal from class.

Removal from and/or restriction of access to specified facilities and/or programs.

Loss of privilege, including, but not limited to, loss of:

- Participation in and/or attendance at any or all public events sponsored by the College.
- Representation of the College in specified capacity.
- The right to hold office in any or all approved organizations.

Institutional employment termination.

Required attendance at meetings and/or completion of projects.

Required participation in certain groups and/or programs.

A requirement of a counseling assessment or a recommendation for counseling.

• RESTITUTION:

A full and complete reimbursement for damage, destruction, or misappropriation of the property of Fort Scott Community College or of others. This restitution may take the form of appropriate service, financial payment, or other compensation. Failure to make arrangements for restitution within the specified time may result in further sanctions.

• COMMUNITY SERVICE WORK:

A student may be required to complete work projects to improve the College or the community.

- DORM PROBATION:

For students residing on campus, this is a serious warning status from the dorm director, which involves a written record being filed with the Dean of Student Services. Further misconduct during the probationary period may result in suspension or expulsion from the Dorm. Probation may also include other sanctions.

- SUSPENSION FROM DORM:

This is the termination of the student's dorm contract for a specified period of time. A permanent notation of the suspension is filed with the Dean of Student Services. The student may apply in writing to the Dean of Student Services for re-admission. A student who is suspended from the dorm must vacate the dorm no later than the deadline set by the dorm director or designated representative. Students who violate these restrictions are subject to the disciplinary action described in the TRESPASS section of the dorm handbook. A cancellation fee will apply as stated in the Dorm Contract under the TERMINATION BY COLLEGE section. If granted re-admission, the student may be subject to any of the other sanctions outlined in this section.

- EXPULSION FROM DORM:

This is a permanent severance from the College dorm and termination of the student's dorm contract. A permanent notation is placed on the student's record as recorded with the dorm director and the Dean of Student Services. A student who is expelled from the dorm is required to vacate his/her residence no later than the deadline set by the dorm director and/or designated representative and is no longer permitted to use or enter the dorm or the surrounding grounds including the dorm parking area. Students who violate these restrictions are subject to the disciplinary action described in the TRESPASS section of the dorm handbook. A cancellation fee will apply as stated in the Dorm Contract under the TERMINATION BY COLLEGE section.

- TRESPASS:

A student who receives a trespass sanction restricting them from the dorm or other facility is totally restricted from use of and entrance to any dorm or facility and the surrounding grounds. Failure to abide by a trespass sanction may result in other disciplinary action and/or criminal charges, including criminal trespass, and the appropriate fine.

• HOLD ON STUDENT RECORDS:

The College reserves the right to “hold” student records for failure to pay bills due to the College. Under such conditions, students may be prevented from registering for courses, copying or transferring transcripts, or participating in other campus activities. All dorm students will be placed on a temporary dorm hold between semesters. This hold will be removed following the twentieth day of the new semester.

• SUSPENSION FROM THE COLLEGE:

This is the termination of a student’s enrollment at Fort Scott Community College for a specified period of time. A permanent notation is placed on the student’s record as recorded in the Office of Student Services, and the Registrar’s Office. In cases of serious misconduct leading to suspension, a student’s records may be frozen and may not be copied, transcribed or transferred for external parties or institutions during the suspension period.

• EXPULSION FROM THE COLLEGE:

This is a permanent severance of a student’s enrollment and association with Fort Scott Community College. A permanent notation is placed on the student’s record.

11. DORM CONTRACT

A student entering the Dorm at the beginning of the fall semester is obligated for the entire school year which ends in May. In all cases, this contract is terminated at 4 p.m. on the last day of the spring semester. Terms for cancellation are described in the Dorm Contract. It is recommended that all residents acquaint themselves fully with the terms and conditions of the contract. Payment shall be made to the business office in the administration building at the time agreed upon in the contract. Terms for termination by the College are described in the TERMINATION BY COLLEGE section of the Dorm Contract. All termination fees apply. Requests for fees to be waived must be submitted to the Dean of Student Services within 10 days of checking out of the dorm.

12. DORM COUNCIL:

The Dorm Council shall consist of resident assistants, the dorm director and selected dorm students. This council shall represent the students in the dorm in matters relating to all aspects of on-campus living at Fort Scott Community College.

13. DORM HOURS: The students will be expected to maintain dorm hours that are conducive to successful study and education procedures. FSCC has “open hours” for its residents. You may come and go as you please. Visitors are allowed from 9 a.m. to midnight, Sunday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 1 a.m., Friday and Saturday. The hours from 11 p.m. to 9 a.m. will be observed as “quiet hours”.

14. ROOM ASSIGNMENT:

Room assignments in the Dorm are made without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin. The College, through the dorm director, reserves the right to change student room assignments as necessary. All changes in room assignments must be approved by the dorm director or designated representative. Any request for change of room assignments will be made in writing to the resident assistant or the dorm director and signed by all parties involved. Students changing rooms without proper approval are subject to a fine as specified in the Fort Scott Community College Violation Report. Change of room assignment is permitted when it is in the best interest of the residents. Dorm rooms are double occupancy.

15. ROOM EQUIPMENT:

The condition of each room is recorded before residents move into the dorm. If any discrepancies are found, they should be reported to the resident assistant or designated representative within twenty-four hours of your initial occupancy. The student will provide his/her own blankets, bedspreads, pillows, towels, washcloths, soap and other personal items. Sports equipment, such as weights, is not permitted in rooms.

16. VACATING OF/AND ADMITTING TO ROOM:

Room accommodations are available on the Friday prior to the official opening date of each semester. Check in hours will be published on the website. Students who arrive early due to classes that commence will check in with permission from the dorm director or designated representative. There will be an additional charge per night for those staying in any dorm.

Rooms must be vacated by 5 p.m. on the last day of the semester or as required by the dorm director or designated representative. The Dorms will be closed between the semesters, during holidays, and Spring Break.

17. ABSENCES FROM THE DORM:

Extended absences from the dorm should be reported to a dorm director’s office (extension 3526).

18. SICKNESS OR ILLNESS:

If any resident becomes ill at any time, he/she, or a roommate should notify the resident assistant or the dorm director immediately. If a dorm staff member is not available, then they should contact a local physician to ensure the proper attention is given. A resident assistant should also be notified of any chronic illness.

19. CLOTHES WASHING AND DRYING:

College owned washers and dryers are installed for use by dorm residents. Students are to provide their own laundry products. The fee for the use of FSCC washers and dryers is $25 per semester. Price is subject to change without notice.

20. COOKING:

For the safety of the dorm residents, electrical appliances, such as electric skillets, hot plates, toaster ovens, or griddles, are not permitted. Medium to small-sized refrigerators are allowed in student rooms.

21. AUTOMOBILES, BICYCLES, MOTORIZED SCOOTERS, SKATEBOARDS AND MOTORCYCLES

FSCC provides parking spaces for dorm residents on the north side of Greyhound Hall and the west side of Boileau Hall. Automobiles or motorcycles must have a parking permit properly displayed on the vehicle. Permits will be issued during dorm check-in. All vehicles are to be operated in a safe manner and should be parked with security precautions. Bicycles, skateboards, motorized scooters and motorbikes are not permitted in the buildings or rooms for storage or repair. Vehicles should be taken home during vacation breaks. The College is not responsible for unattended vehicles during this time. Unauthorized vehicles parked in the fire lane and/or handicap spaces will be towed at owner's expenses.

22. INTERNET SERVICE

Wireless internet access is available in each dorm room. A computer lab is also available in Greyhound Hall or Bioleau Hall.

23. PARKING

Although the college has "free parking" throughout the campus parking permits are required on all vehicles. You can obtain them from the Director of Student Life office. Students must park in the dorm lot in which they reside; however, illegally parked cars will be subject to towing at the owners expense. Handicapped, yellow zones and fire lane spaces are off limits to unapproved individuals.

24. SALES AND/OR SOLICITATION

Residents may not conduct sales or solicitation in the dorm for any purpose. This includes but not limited to babysitting.

25. GROUNDS CARE

Trash receptacles are provided on the grounds of the Dorm. Students are to utilize the receptacles in disposing of paper and trash, and to maintain the Dorm as a temporary home by keeping the areas clean and presentable for the residents and their guests. Individual wastebaskets are to be emptied in the outside trash receptacles on the college grounds.

26. KEYS

Upon arrival and during check-in, the residents are issued their keys. The room should be kept locked at all times. The College cannot assume responsibility for personal belongings if they are lost or stolen. If your key is lost and/or stolen, a charge of $75 will be made to your account for the replacement of a new lock. Students are not to loan room keys to other residents or to outside guests. Loaning your room key and access card to anyone is a violation. There will be a charge of $15 for each replacement access card and a charge of $10 for each replacement mailbox key.

27. MAIL/PACKAGE DELIVERY

FSCC Staff handle and delivery all mail for the dormitories. All mail is delivered to the resident's assigned mailbox by 4 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday. Residents will receive a mailbox number and key at dorm check-in. Residents who received packages will receive a notification in their mailbox to pick up their package in the Director of Student Life office between 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Mail will be returned to sender if the students name is not on it or if it's not picked up after two (2) weeks. Stamps are available for purchase in the bookstore. If a student prefers to have his/her mail forwarded to another address, he/she must contact the individual senders directly. The post office does not make address changes from the college.

28. PETS/GUIDELINES FOR ASSISTANCE ANIMALS

Residents are not permitted to keep pets of any kind in the rooms or on the on-campus college-owned property. Violations will result in appropriate fines. One dog per student is allowed in Greyhound Lodge ONLY.

GUIDELINES FOR ASSISTANCE ANIMALS

FSCC is committed to compliance with state and federal laws regarding individuals with disabilities. A resident who desires to have a service animal or assistance animal in a residence hall must notify the Office of Disability Services at least thirty (30) days prior to the date that the resident seeks to have the animal in the residence hall.

Federal regulations define a “service animal” as “...any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability...” A service animal is permitted to reside in the residence hall unless the animal’s behavior necessitates removal.

For purposes of these guidelines, an “assistance animal” is defined as an animal that alleviates one or more symptoms or effects of a disability. A determination of whether a resident with a disability will be permitted to have an assistance animal in a residence hall as a reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis by the Office of Disability Services and Housing and Residence Life staff in consultation with the resident.

An assistance animal may be permitted in a residence hall as a reasonable accommodation only if:

- the resident has a disability;
- the animal is necessary to afford the resident with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy the residence hall; and
- there is an identifiable relationship or nexus between the disability and the support that the animal provides.

When it is not readily apparent that there is a need for an assistance animal, the resident must provide the following documentation to the Office of Disability Services:

- Documentation of a disability
- A signed letter on professional letterhead from a licensed physician, psychiatrist, social worker or mental health professional that states:
- The nature of the disabling condition or impairment; and
- The provider’s professional opinion that the animal provides support that alleviates at least one of the identified symptoms or effects of the disability.

A service animal or an assistance animal will not be permitted in the residence hall that:

- Poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others;

- Causes substantial physical damage to the property of others;
- Poses an undue financial or administrative burden; or fundamentally alters the nature of housing operations.

A service animal that is disruptive, or that is not housebroken, will not be permitted in the residence hall. Whether an assistance animal is disruptive will be determined by Housing and Residence Life staff. Disruptive behavior by an assistance animal includes, but is not limited to, barking, jumping on individuals, growling at individuals, or the owner's failure to have the animal on a leash when in common/shared areas of the residence hall.

A resident who is permitted to have a service animal or an assistance animal in the residence hall is financially responsible for any property damage caused by the animal.

The resident is responsible for the care of a service animal or assistance animal, and for cleaning up any waste created by the animal.

29. QUIET HOURS

Quiet hours are from 11 p.m. to 9 a.m. daily. Room doors should remain closed during quiet hours, and noise inside the room should not be audible outside the room.

30. REFRIGERATORS

Mini refrigerators are allowed in student rooms. They are to be defrosted, cleaned out, and unplugged during vacation breaks.

31. REQUESTS FOR REPAIRS IN YOUR ROOM

It is suggested that students make requests to the dorm director, dorm staff or members of the housekeeping staff by 10 a.m. daily. Requests can be emailed to marcim@fortscott.edu

32. WINDOWS

Windows of the rooms are not to be used for entrance or exit of the buildings.

33. ELEVATORS

Elevators will be closed to students. Exceptions for special circumstances must be made through the Dean of Student Services.

34. TORNADO DRILLS:

WHAT TO DO WHEN A TORNADO STRIKES

Here are a few things to keep in mind if a tornado warning is sounded:

-  If time permits, residents will take shelter in the basement area of the Administration building. Otherwise, take shelter in a closet or bathroom in the middle of the building under sturdy furniture. Outer walls are the first to go in a tornado, often leaving inner walls intact.
-  If you are in your car, drive away from the tornado if possible. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in a depression on the side of the road away from the tornado and well away from your car.
-  If a tornado does strike, be extremely cautious around tornado or wind-damaged structures because they could collapse or contain broken glass, live wires or leaking gas.
-  Unless you are a nurse or physician, stay away from tornado-damaged areas because you might hinder rescue efforts. Limit telephone use because lines can become overloaded, delaying emergency calls.

WEATHER WORDS

Tornado Watch

This means local atmospheric conditions are ripe for severe thunderstorms and tornadoes. This alert is usually issued for an area about 150 miles wide by 200 miles long for a period of three to six hours.

Tornado Warning

This means a tornado has been sighted or weather radar indicates that a tornado is forming. This alert is usually issued for counties or parts of countries in the path of a possible tornado. You should head for shelter immediately.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES FOR POWER OUTAGE

On the FSCC campus, all resident students are advised to keep a sleeping bag and flashlight in their room. If residence halls should lose power for an extended period, the cafeteria is the designated emergency shelter. During winter weather, students dress warmly and bring blankets and sleeping bags to the cafeteria; the dining hall staff will prepare meals for normal service hours.

During an emergency or if there is a power outage, student can contact resident life personnel by calling the following numbers:

Marci Myers (Director) 620-215-3225

Tom Havron (Dean of Students) 620-212-9921

35. FIRE DRILLS:

The fire alarm system is a critical safety measure. Anytime the alarm sounds you are expected to vacate your room immediately and get away from the building. Know where your fire extinguisher is in your complex. Fire drills will be held at least once each semester.

FIRE DRILL PROCEDURES

Your cooperation in following the procedures listed may be important in saving your life and the lives of other residents if a fire or similar disaster should occur. It is the responsibility of every resident to be familiar with these procedures and observe them carefully.

 WHEN THE ALARM SOUNDS -

1. Close the windows.
2. Raise the blinds.
3. Leave only the overhead light on.
4. Wear hard-soled shoes and during cold weather wear a coat.
5. Carry a towel to be placed over your face in case of smoke.
6. Close and lock the door.
7. Check the room on either side of you to make sure your neighbors are up.
8. Go, without talking, to the nearest exit. Walk swiftly. Do not run or push.
9. When outside, face away from the building in case of an explosion.
10. Do not return to your room until the signal is given by an authorized official.

36. FIRE EXTINGUISHER:

A fire extinguisher is designed to put out a small fire, not a big one. The fire extinguisher in your living unit is a multipurpose, dry chemical one, labeled ABC, which puts out most types of fire – wood, paper, cloth, flammable liquid, or electrical fires.

This is how your fire extinguisher works:

1. Pull the pin. Some units require the releasing of a lock latch, pressing a puncture lever, inversion, or other motion.
2. Aim the extinguisher nozzle (horn or hose) at the base of the fire.
3. Squeeze or press the handle.
4. Sweep from side to side at the base of the fire. Watch for re-flash. Discharge the contents of the extinguisher.

37. FIRE SAFETY:

Fire extinguishers and smoke detectors are installed in all complexes in compliance with state regulations. These fire extinguishers can be used to put out small fires, such as trash receptacles or burning mattresses. Misuse of fire equipment, theft, damage, or making equipment inoperative for immediate use is considered a “breach of college and state regulations,” and can result in suspension, expulsion from the dorm and an appropriate fine. Burning any substance indoors i.e. candles, incense, etc. is prohibited. Extension cord and multi plugs in outlets are prohibited.

38. DORM CHECK-OUT PROCEDURE:

If you do not check out properly and follow the steps below, you will be assessed a fine as described in the Fort Scott Community College Incident Report.

1. Arrange a time with the dorm staff to make a final check of your room. Rooms are not to be occupied after they have been checked.
2. Unplug all desk lamps and floor lamps.
3. Clean room to include:
 - a. Sweep and/or mop floor just before leaving
 - b. Empty all trash and deposit in trash unit provided outside of your dorm
 - c. The dorm director and staff will be the sole judge of cleanliness and of necessary charges.
4. Remove all personal property from room. Personal items not taken will be discarded as described in the LIABILITY section of the Dorm Contract
5. Make sure all room furniture is in your room in its original location and not stored anywhere else.
6. Turn out lights.
7. Lock door.
8. Sign the Room Condition Report provided by the dorm director or designated representative (unless otherwise directed) to show that you checked out properly.
9. Turn in your dorm room key, mailbox key and access card to the dorm director or designated representative (unless otherwise directed).
10. Residents of the Dorm are expected to vacate and remove personal possessions no later than the deadline set by the dorm director or designated representative, upon withdrawal from College, upon termination of the Dorm Contract, or after the end of the semester.

GETTING ALONG WITH YOUR COLLEGE ROOMMATE

When people live in the close community of a dorm, some disagreements and conflicts are bound to arise. Knowing something in advance about group living can help you ease these situations before they become problems.

1. Room keeping: You and your roommate may differ on standards of neatness, and these should be discussed early on. With busy schedules, it may not always be realistic to expect perfect tidiness from your roommate (or from yourself, for that matter), but it is reasonable, for example, that your room look neat when friends visit. You and your roommate should inform each other in advance when you plan to have guests so that the other can straighten up or do whatever you agree is acceptable.

2. Sharing of personal possessions: At the beginning of the school year, clearly express your preferences about sharing of clothing, cosmetics, sports equipment, food, appliances, or other possessions, with your roommate. When in doubt, always ask permission to borrow or use someone else's belongings. Remember, it is perfectly okay if you decide not to share your things with others.

3. Developing friendships: As the school year progresses, it is natural for strong friendships to develop between students who are not roommates. Although you and your roommate may become close, you are encouraged to seek out different people and build a variety of friendships. If you and your roommate do not become good friends, you can still be friendly and respectful toward each other.

4. Visitors to the room: There may be times when your roommate wants to entertain and you want to study at your desk, or go to sleep. By discussing these needs, you can reach compromises that allow each of you to have your way at least some of the time. Planning and informing each other in advance will make it easier for both of you to adjust to each other's habits.

5. Study habits: Some people study better with music in the background; others need total quiet to concentrate. Some students like to study in their rooms; others prefer the library. Some study late into the night; others work best during the day or early evening. You and your roommate will have definite preferences, and you can expect that they will not always be the same. It can be helpful to talk about your needs early in the year to establish an acceptable arrangement.

6. Noise: In every student's life, there comes a time when the room or building will seem too noisy. Music may be too loud, an alarm clock may ring at 4 a.m.

or your roommate may get a phone call late at night. These may be occasional, unavoidable annoyances or situations that disturb you regularly and that call for discussion.

7. Personal habits: The quiet rumble of your roommate's dresser drawer opening and closing may be loud enough to awaken you early in the morning. One of you may sleep better in a cold room, while the other likes to turn up the heat at bedtime. Chances are there will be some habit or personal preference that becomes a problem. In the case of a noisy dresser drawer, a little oiling or a gentler touch may go a long way. To resolve the hot-or-cold question, one of you may wear extra (or fewer) clothes or covers to bed, open the window a little more (or less), or adjust the room temperature after the other is asleep. Residents are encouraged to discuss and resolve differences in personal habits.

HOW CAN YOU DEVELOP A GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR ROOMMATE?

Don't be afraid to communicate with each other about your needs and feelings, rather than keep them pent up. Most roommate problems are on the level of, "I don't like the way you keep your side of the room." They're not really hard to work out.

In the early part of the school year, you may not feel comfortable talking openly with your roommate about your differences, but as you get to know each other, you'll probably be more outspoken. As academic pressures mount and winter sets in, some things may bother you more than they previously did. This is to be expected. It helps to know in advance that people's sensitivities change during the year.

Compromise doesn't necessarily mean accepting an unsatisfactory solution. Compromise actually is a problem-solving skill that challenges your creativity to find ways where there can be two winners. Be willing to experiment. If one approach doesn't work, talk things over and try new ideas.

Many potential conflicts involving roommates can be resolved by the participants themselves, but sometimes a concerned third party can help. FSCC has dorm staff to hear students' problems and help resolve them.

One of the greatest advantages of living with others during college is the opportunity to share important experiences in your life with people who are having similar experiences. With communication, consideration, and willingness to make things work, living with a college roommate can be a good learning experience.

BE SMART – DON'T MAKE LIFE EASY FOR A THIEF

Protect your belongings by using common sense and taking precautions

PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY:

LOCK YOUR DOORS every time you leave. The best locks in the world can't prevent theft if they're not used.

MAKE A LIST of your valuables and keep it in a safe place. Include an exact description, year purchased and serial numbers. Thieves sometimes go unpunished or property can't be returned because people can't recall or identify what they owned.

ENGRAVE YOUR VALUABLES with an ID number.

PROTECT YOUR BICYCLE:

ALWAYS LOCK IT even if you're only going to be gone for a few minutes. It only takes a few seconds for a thief to pick up a bicycle or ride it away.

LOCK IT SECURELY through both wheels and the frame. Use a heavy chain, cable or bike lock to connect it to an immovable object.

ENGRAVE YOUR BIKE with your ID number.

PROTECT YOUR CAR:

ALWAYS LOCK YOUR CAR and take the keys. Many car thieves don't have to break in – the door is already unlocked and the keys are in the ignition.

LOCK VALUABLES IN THE TRUNK so a thief won't be tempted to break in.

PARK IN WELL-LIGHTED AREAS where there are plenty of passers-by.

AVOID LEAVING YOUR KEYS where they can be picked up by others.

Campus Crime/Security Policy

Fort Scott Community College follows the guidelines set forth in the Crime Awareness & Campus Security Act of 1990. The college has specific policies covering the following areas: procedures for students to report criminal activities on campus; security at campus facilities; availability and authority of campus law enforcement; programs available to inform students about security and the prevention of crime; recording of crime through local police agencies; and possession, use and sale of alcohol and drugs. The complete policies are available for review in the office of the Vice President of Students.

WHAT IS THE VAWA (THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN) ACT?

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is a landmark piece of legislation that sought to improve criminal justice and community-based responses to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking in the United States.

The passage of VAWA in 1994 and its reauthorization in 2000, 2005 and 2013, has changed the landscape for victims who once suffered in silence. Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking have been able to access services, and a new generation of families and justice system professionals has come to understand that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking are crimes that our society will not tolerate.

THE FACTS & FIGURES

The statistics on this page have been compiled from various sources

- On average, 24 people per minute are victims of rape, physical violence or stalking by an intimate partner in the United States — more than 12 million women and men over the course of a year.[i]
- Nearly 3 in 10 women (29%) and 1 in 10 men (10%) in the US have experienced rape, physical violence and/or stalking by a partner and report a related impact on their functioning.[ii]
- Nearly, 15% of women (14.8%) and 4% of men have been injured as a result of IPV that included rape, physical violence and/or stalking by an intimate partner in their lifetime.[iii]
- 1 in 4 women (24.3%) and 1 in 7 men (13.8%) aged 18 and older in the United States have been the victim of severe physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime.[iv]
- IPV alone affects more than 12 million people each year.[v]
- More than 1 in 3 women (35.6%) and more than 1 in 4 men (28.5%) in the United States have experienced rape, physical violence and/or stalking by an intimate partner in their lifetime.[vi]
- Nearly half of all women and men in the United States have experienced psychological aggression by an intimate partner in their lifetime (48.4% and 48.8%, respectively).[vii]
- Females ages 18 to 24 and 25 to 34 generally experienced the highest rates of intimate partner violence.[viii]
- From 1994 to 2010, about 4 in 5 victims of intimate partner violence were female. [ix]
- Most female victims of intimate partner violence were previously victimized by the same offender, including 77% of females ages 18 to 24, 76% of females ages 25 to 34, and 81% of females ages 35 to 49.[x]

WARNING SIGNS AND RED FLAGS

It's not always easy to tell at the beginning of a relationship if it will become abusive.

In fact, many abusive partners may seem absolutely perfect in the early stages of a relationship. Possessive and controlling behaviors don't always appear overnight, but rather emerge and intensify as the relationship grows.

Domestic violence doesn't look the same in every relationship because every relationship is different. But one thing most abusive relationships have in common is that the abusive partner does many different kinds of things to have more power and control over their partners.

If you're beginning to feel as if your partner or a loved one's partner is becoming abusive, there are a few behaviors that you can look out for. Watch out for these red flags and if you're experiencing one or more of them in your relationship, call the hotline to talk about what's going on.

- Telling you that you can never do anything right
- Showing jealousy of your friends and time spent away
- Keeping you or discouraging you from seeing friends or family members
- Embarrassing or shaming you with put-downs
- Controlling every penny spent in the household
- Taking your money or refusing to give you money for expenses
- Looking at you or acting in ways that scare you
- Controlling who you see, where you go, or what you do
- Preventing you from making your own decisions
- Telling you that you are a bad parent or threatening to harm or take away your children
- Preventing you from working or attending school
- Destroying your property or threatening to hurt or kill your pets
- Intimidating you with guns, knives or other weapons
- Pressuring you to have sex when you don't want to or do things sexually you're not comfortable with
- Pressuring you to use drugs or alcohol

GREYHOUNDS TAKE A STAND SURVEY

What Does An Abusive Relationship Look Like?

Does your partner ever....

Embarrass you with put-downs?

Control what you do, who you see or talk to or where you go?

Look at you or act in ways that scare you?

Push you, slap you, choke you, or hit you?

Stop you from seeing your friends or family members?

- Control the money in the relationship? Take your money or Social Security check, make you ask for money or refuse to give you money?
- Make all of the decisions?
- Tell you that you're a bad parent or threaten to take away your children?
- Prevent you from working or attending school?
- Act like the abuse is no big deal, deny the abuse or tell you it's your own fault?
- Destroy your property or threaten to kill your pets?
- Intimidate you with guns, knives or other weapons?
- Attempt to force you to drop criminal charges?
- Threaten to commit suicide, or threaten to kill you?

If you answered 'yes' to even one of these questions, you may be in an unhealthy or abusive relationship. In this section, you'll find all sorts of information on different forms of abuse. Don't hesitate to chat or call FSCC administration and/or the resources that follow.

GREYHOUNDS TAKE A STAND AGAINST ~ Against Bullying

Know the Facts

Bullying is a widespread and serious problem that can happen anywhere. It is not a developmental phase an individual has to go through, it is not “just messing around”, and it is not something to grow out of. Bullying can cause serious and lasting harm.

If you need help or need to report a violent act such as bullying, domestic or dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or substance abuse for a student contact the Vice President of Students by phone at 620-223-2700 ext. 3500 or for an FSCC employee contact human resources at 620-223-2700 ext. 5201.

In an emergency contact the Fort Scott Police Department at 620-223-1700.

Bullying Involves

- Imbalance of Power - people who bully use their power to control or harm and the people being bullied.
- Intent to Cause Harm - actions done by accident are not bullying, the person bullying has a goal to cause harm.
- Repetition - incidents of bullying happen to the same the person over and over by the same person or group.

Who is a Bully?

Anyone can be a bully by using the following techniques to intimidate, embarrass, belittle or harass someone.

- Verbal - name-calling, hassling someone, spreading rumors or making degrading comments
- Social - spreading rumors, leaving people out on purpose, interfering negatively on other relationships
- Physical - hitting, punching, shoving or by using threatening looks or gestures
- Cyber bullying - using the Internet, mobile phones or other digital technologies to harm others

When bullying becomes physical or sexual and causes harm or damage to property or makes you feel afraid to attend classes, it can be considered to be an assault or harassment.

Are Being Bullied?

If you experience any of the following feelings caused by someone, you may be a victim of bullying.

- Feel angry, sad, lonely, or depressed
- Feel like you have no friends.
- Find that you are getting into fights.
- Want to hurt someone else or yourself.
- Feel like taking steps to defend yourself.
- Feel helpless to stop the bullying.
- Feel hopeless that anything can be done.
- Be afraid to go to be on campus, or feel anxious all the time.
- Feel bad about yourself.

Take A Stand

- Talk to your parents and discuss how they can help you be safe.
- Talk to a college administrator, professor, and counselor.
- Contact the Vice President of Students or human resources if you are an employee.
- Talk to a reliable friend who can help you.

Be an Active Bystander

- Refuse to join in bullying behavior.
- Safely intervene to point out unacceptable behavior to the bully.
- Ask a college official help. You can make a positive difference in someone's life.
- Tell the victim that you want to help him or her
- Contact college officials or counselors and offer to go with them for support.

- For Students – Contact the Vice President of Students 620.223.2700 ext. 3500
- Talk to a reliable friend who can help you with the next steps to report and seek assistance

Tips for Ending an Abusive Dating Relationship

- Create a safety plan, like where you can go if you are in danger.
- Make sure you have a working cell phone handy in case you need to call for help.
- Create a secret code with people you trust. That way, if you are with your partner, you can get help without having to say you need help.
- If you're breaking up with someone you see at your high school or college, you can get help from a guidance counselor, advisor, teacher, school nurse, dean's office, or principal. You also might be able to change your class schedules or even transfer to another school.
- If you have a job, talk to someone you trust at work. Your human resources department or employee assistance program (EAP) may be able to help.
- Try to avoid walking or riding alone.
- Be smart about technology. Don't share your passwords. Don't post your schedule on Facebook, and keep your settings private.
- If you are ending a long-term or a live-in dating relationship, you may want to read our section on domestic and intimate partner violence.

Know the Facts

One in three women on the planet is raped or beaten in her lifetime, adding up to one billion women violated, according to One Billion Rising. The FSCC community, including employees, students and community members are working to maintain a safe environment for study and work. This includes awareness and prevention of sexual assault or misconduct. All members of the FSCC community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. If you or someone you know has been sexually assaulted recently or is dealing with the long-term effects of sexual abuse, there are many helpful resources available throughout the surrounding area.

Sexual Violence Includes

There are many types of sexual violence and ways for individuals to be victimized. If you experience or are aware of any of the following violent acts, this site provides additional information to assist the victims and observers to seek assistance immediately.

- Sexual Violence - Often this term is used interchangeably with rape depending on the federal state and federal laws.
- Rape - In about 8 out of 10 rapes, no weapon is used other than physical force. Anyone may be a victim of rape: women, men or children, straight or gay.
- Acquaintance Rape - Assault by an acquaintance involves coercive sexual activities by someone that the victim knows. It occurs against a person's will by means of force, duress, violence or fear of bodily injury.
- Child Sexual Abuse - Often a means of child sexual abuse occurs by an acquaintance or relative through incest.
- Dating and Domestic Violence - The issues of power and control are often at the center of dating and family violence. It occurs in all socio-economic, educational, racial, and age groups.
- Drug Facilitated Sexual Violence - This form of violence is used to compromise the individual's ability to consent prevents the sexual act from occurring. Drugs and alcohol are used to prevent the victim from protecting themselves.
- Hate Crimes - Victims of hate crimes are usually based on a dislike of another's race, religion, national origin, ethnic identification, gender, or sexual orientation.
- Incest - This crime occurs between closely related individuals such as parents and children, uncles/aunts and nieces/nephews, etc.
- Male Sexual Violence - Men and boys are also the victims of the crimes of sexual violence, sexual abuse and rape. In fact, in the U.S., over 10% of all victims are male.
- Partner Rape or Domestic Violence - This violent sexual acts is committed without a person's consent and/or against a person's will. The perpetrator is the individual's current partner (married or not), previous partner, or co-perpetrator.
- Sexual Exploitation by Helping Professionals - This act involves sexual contact without consent by a person of trust such as helping professional and a victim. These individual perpetrators could be the victims' doctor, therapist, teacher, priest, professor, police officer, lawyer, etc. — and a client/patient.
- Sexual Harassment - Unwelcome advances for sexual favors by verbal or physical conduct that affects a victim's work or school performance are considered sexual harassment.
- Stalking Victims - that have been unaware of being followed for the purpose of a physical or sexual assault often have life altering experiences.

- Stranger Rape - 3 major categories include Blitz Sexual Assault by rapidly assaulting the victim with no prior contact. Contact Sexual Assault is made by the suspect trying to gain the trust of their victim by luring them out of areas where they can seek help. Home Invasion Sexual Assault when a stranger breaks and enters a victim's home.

What to Do If Sexually Assaulted

- Get to a safe place for your protection.
- Get medical attention immediately. The primary purpose of medical examination is to check for physical injury, the presence of sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancy as a result of the assault. The secondary purpose of the medical examination is to aid in the police investigation and legal proceedings.
- Don't bathe or douche. Bathing or douching might be the first thing you want to do. This would literally be washing away valuable evidence. Wait until you have a medical examination.
- Save your clothing. It is all right to change clothes, but save what you were wearing. Place each item of clothing in a separate paper bag and save for the police. Your clothing could be used as evidence for prosecution.
- Report the incident to the police. It is up to you, but reporting is not the same thing as prosecution. Prosecution can be determined later.
- Contact your victim support resources. If you are a victim of a sexual assault, please secure medical attention and supporting agencies even if you decided not to contact the police.
- Talk to a professional counselor to get the emotional help that you need due to the trauma. Many sexual assault cases go unreported because the victim fears retaliation or possible humiliation if word gets around she/he has been the victim of a sex offense. Victims tend to feel guilty as though they did something to bring it on themselves and often keep the incident to themselves or share some of the incident with a close friend. While this might be helpful in the immediate sense, we encourage you to talk to a knowledgeable counselor about your reactions to being victimized. The services that are provided both on and off campus are available to all victims of violent acts and are designed to assist in overcoming the trauma of the attack.

Decide No and Take A Stand Now

You have a right to be safe. Seek out the following resources if you or someone you know has a problem with substance abuse.

- Student assistance is available through the FSCC Counselor and Advising offices.
- Employee assistance is administered through the office of Human Resources.
- FSCC's advising offices offer resources designed to introduce skills for maintaining a healthy lifestyle and understanding addictions to smoking, alcohol and illegal drugs.
- Tell your parents and talk with them about how they can help with your concern.

- Tell a college administrator, instructor, or staff member.
- Contact the Vice President of Students if you are a student.
- Contact Human Resources, if you are an employee.
- Tell a reliable friend who can provide personal assistance.

Be an Active Bystander

- Help the victim by encouraging them to get help and that you will help them.
- Safely intervene to point out unacceptable behavior.
- Ask a college official for help. You can make a positive difference in someone's life.
- Encourage the victim to contact the counselors for emotional assistance and guidance.
- Encourage the victim to go to the police for safety and help.

In support of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act, Title IX regulations and the Clery Act, FSCC prohibits the above offenses.

In an emergency contact the Fort Scott Police Department at 620-223-1700.

Know the Facts

Approximately 3.4 million people in the United States are victims of stalking each year. The primary target is young adults between the ages of 18-24 years old. Most victims know their stalker. About 1 in 4 victims experienced some form of cyberstalking. Stalking creates uncertainty, instills fear and can completely disrupt lives. Refer to the National Institute of Justice for a legal definition and information concerning stalking.

Stalking Involves

- Repeated undesired contact such as phone calls, emails, letters, showing up unexpectedly, etc.
- Following or laying in wait for the individual.
- Making threats to the individual or their family.
- Any harassing or threatening behavior used to contact, track, or place fear in the individual.
- Cyberstalking includes threatening behavior to create unwanted advances using the Internet and other forms of online and computer communications. Some forms of cyber stalking can include harassment using threatening or obscene emails, live chat, texting, hacking or monitoring a victim's computer and online activity.

Who is a Stalker?

- A stalker can be someone you know well or not at all. Most stalkers have dated or been involved with the people they stalk. Most stalking cases involve men stalking women, but men do stalk men, women do stalk women, and women do stalk men.
- Intimate partner stalkers frequently approach their targets, and their behaviors escalate quickly.
- Almost 1/3 of stalkers have stalked before.
- 2/3 of stalkers pursue their victims at least once per week, many daily, using more than one method.
- 78% of stalkers use more than one means of approach.
- Weapons are used to harm, or threaten victims in 1 out of 5 cases.

Know You Are Being Stalked

If you experience any of the following unwanted or harassing contacts on more than one occasion during the past year that made you feel annoyed, fearful, anxious or concerned, you may be a victim of stalking.

- Receiving unwanted phone calls.
- Sending unsolicited or unwanted letters or e-mails
- Having a sense of being followed more than once by someone.
- Having someone show up at places without legitimate reasons or waiting for you.
- Finding unwanted items, presents, or flowers.
- Finding that your property has vandalized or damaged.
- Receiving threats directed at you or someone close to you.
- Finding posted information or rumors about yourself on the Internet, in a public place, or by word of mouth.

Decide No and Take a Stand Now

You have a right to be safe. It is not your fault if someone is stalking you. You should consider taking the following actions.

- Reporting the stalking to the FSPD.
- There are stalking laws in every state. The stalker may be violating other laws such as assaulting, stealing or destroying property.
- Avoiding all contact with the stalker.
- Vary your routines, including changing driving routes, places frequented.
- Limit time alone and try to not travel alone.
- Informing family, friends, supervisors, co-workers of what is going on.
- Asking for assistance from the FSCC Counseling and Advising Services, college administrators or professors.
- Keeping documentation such as a journal or log of all incidents connected to the stalking.
- All evidence received from the stalker such as letters, packages, taped telephone messages should be kept in a safe place.
- Have a safety plan including escape routes and codes to call help at work, school and home for your family, friends and children.

- Change your patterns and routes depending on where and when your travel.
- Consider requesting a restraining order issued from the court.
- Communicate with your close friends, family and co-workers so that they are also aware and can report any unusual activity.

Be an Active Bystander

- Listen and show support for the victim.
- Have the victim keep you and their close acquaintances informed about their travel, schedule and other information so that they can be located at all times.
- Ask others to include the victim in activities so that it will eliminate them being alone.
- Encourage the victim to ask you or someone they trust to join them if they will be out alone.
- Safely intervene to point by telling the authorities of your concern.
- Encourage the victim to have a phone at all times and include speed dial numbers on their phone.
- Help the victim create a safety plan,
- Help the victim locate a safe place if in imminent danger.
 - o police stations
 - o Residences of family or friends, especially if unknown to the perpetrators
 - o domestic violence shelters
 - o place of worship
 - o public areas

GREYHOUNDS TAKE A STAND ~ Against Substance Abuse?

Know the Facts

If you need help or need to report a violent act such as bullying, domestic or dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or substance abuse for a student contact the Vice President of Students by phone at 620-223-2700 ext. 3500 or for an FSCC employee contact human resources at 620-223-2700 ext. 5201.

In an emergency contact the Fort Scott Police Department at 620-223-1700.

Alcoholism is a chronic disease that will affect a person for an entire lifetime. There are four main symptoms that are present when someone is dealing with alcohol dependence:

- Craving - having a strong need or urge to drink alcohol
- Loss of control - not being able to stop drinking once drinking has started
- Physical dependence - withdrawal symptoms such as nausea, sweating, shakiness, and anxiety after drinking has stopped
- Tolerance - needing to drink greater amounts of alcohol to get high

Know if There is a Problem

If you think you might have a problem, ask yourself:

- Have you ever felt you should cut down on your drinking?
- Have you been annoyed if others expressed concern about your drinking?
- Have you ever felt guilty about your drinking?
- Have you ever had to drink first thing in the morning to steady your nerves or to get rid of a hangover?

Decide No and Take a Stand Now

You have a right to be safe. Seek out the following resources if you or someone you know has a problem with substance abuse.

- Student assistance is available through FSCC's advising office.
- Employee assistance is administered through the office of Human Resources.
- FSCC offers personal counseling services to students, including drug and alcohol abuse.
- Tell your parents and talk with them about how they can help with your concern.
- Tell a college administrator, professor or friend.
- Contact the Vice President of Students if you are a student, 620.223.2700 ext. 3500
- Tell a reliable friend who can provide personal assistance.

Be an Active Bystander if Someone You Know is Abusing Substances

- Refuse to join in the behavior.
- Safely intervene to point out unacceptable behavior.
- Ask a college official help. You can make a positive difference in someone's life.
- Tell the individual that you want to help him or her.
- Encourage them to contact college officials or counselors and offer to go with them for support.

BE AN ACTIVE BYSTANDERKnow the Facts

If you need help or need to report a violent act such as bullying, domestic or dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or substance abuse for a student contact the Vice President of Students by phone at 620-223-2700 ext. 3500 or for an FSCC employee contact human resources at 620-223-2700 ext. 5201.

In an emergency contact the Fort Scott Police Department at 620-223-1700.

The Greyhounds Take a Stand program is FSCC's prevention and education efforts to help stop relationship violence in support of title IX, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act, the SaVE Act and Clery.

The college asks every one of the FSCC family to be an active bystander. Being an active bystander shows that you care about the FSCC community. When you witness any troubling behavior, take action to make sure that FSCC is a safe place. Being aware, and responding are key to become an active bystander. See something, say something and do something.

There are many examples for becoming an active bystander. Observing any of the following behaviors that need you to say something to keep FSCC and our FSCC community safe.

Take a Stand Against These Behaviors

- disrespectful or abusive behavior
- homophobic
- racist or sexist jokes
- discrimination

- risky behavior resulting from substance use
- ate behavior or comments
- taking advantage of power imbalances such as status, size, or level of inebriation.

Just Ask

- Are you OK?
- Can I talk to you for a second?
- That's really not cool.

Use Backups

1. Get your friends together- it's time to leave
2. Get your friends for back-up. Sometimes having your friends to back you up makes it easier to intervene.
3. If intervening in the situation would be dangerous for you to do, FSPD at (620) 223-1700, OR call 911—it's always an option for intervention.

Use Distraction

1. Invite yourself to tag along
2. Hey, this party is lame, let's go somewhere else.

Use the Silent Stare

1. Sometimes a disapproving look can be far more powerful than words

Use Humor

1. Reduces the tension of an intervention and makes it easier for the person to hear you.
2. Do not undermine what you say with too much humor. Funny doesn't mean unimportant

Use Disapproval

1. Say something, "I hope no one ever talks to you like that."
2. Challenge a sexist/rape joke, "I don't get it, can you explain why that joke is funny?"

Use Friendship

1. "I gotta tell you that the way you acted makes you look like a jerk."
2. "As your friend, I thought you were better than this."

Report It

1. Contact the Vice President of Students, tell a Faculty member or an FSCC Staff member
