

Section 3: Fort Scott Community College Student Handbook

Student Conduct

All student behavior shall be based upon respect and consideration for the rights of others. Students shall be responsible for knowing and abiding by the rules and regulations of the college.

The college assumes that all students are able and willing to maintain standards of self-discipline appropriate to membership in a college community. A rigid code of conduct is purposely omitted in order to establish confidence in this assumption. The college reserves the right to take disciplinary measures in the best interests of FSCC.

Discipline is the responsibility of the Dean of Students. Cases involving minor infractions of normal discipline are handled by the Disciplinary Review Board. Disciplinary action will be initiated when a student's behavior/action is determined to be dangerous to that individual's health/well-being, infringement on others' rights, damage to college property, or any other situation which reflects negatively on the college community, programs, organizations, or activities.

The college reserves the right to dismiss a student whose conduct is at any time unsatisfactory in the judgment of college officials. Conflicts with rules/regulations governing the following areas place a student in violation, and subject to discipline, of the Student Code of Conduct.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Violence Against Women Act

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is a landmark piece of legislation that seeks to improve criminal justice and community-based responses to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking in the United States.

The passage of VAWA in 1994 and its reauthorization in 2000, 2005, and 2013 has changed the landscape for victims who once suffered in silence. Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking have been able to access services; and a new generation of families and justice system professionals has come to understand that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking are crimes that our society will not tolerate.

In support of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act, Title IX regulations and the Clery Act, FSCC prohibits all violent offenses. FSCC's Greyhounds Take a Stand program promotes the education efforts to help stop relationship violence in support of Title IX, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act, the SaVE Act, and Clery.

Sexual Harassment Policy

The Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the State of Kansas regard sexual harassment, a specific form of discriminatory harassment, as an unlawful discriminatory practice. FSCC has adopted the following definition of sexual harassment in order to address the unique environment of an academic community. Acts of sexual harassment may be committed by any person upon any other person, regardless of the sex, sexual orientation, and/or gender identity of those involved.

Sexual harassment, as an umbrella category, includes the offenses of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, and is defined as: Conduct on the basis of sex or that is sexual in nature that satisfies one or more of the following:

- 1) Quid Pro Quo:
 - a. an employee of FSCC,
 - b. conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of FSCC
 - c. on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
- 2) Sexual Harassment:
 - a. unwelcome conduct,
 - b. determined by a reasonable person,
 - c. to be so severe, and
 - d. pervasive, and,
 - e. objectively offensive,
 - f. that it effectively denies a person equal access to FSCC's education program or activity.
- 3) Sexual assault, defined as:

Any sexual act directed against another person,

 - without the consent of the Complainant,
 - including instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent.

 - i. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the Complainant's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition—

ii. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.

iii. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

f. by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of Kansas or

g. by any other person against an adult or youth Complainant who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of Kansas.

To categorize an incident as Domestic Violence under this Policy, the relationship between the Respondent and the Complainant must be more than just two people living together as roommates. The people cohabiting must be current or former spouses or have an intimate relationship.*

6) Stalking, defined as:

Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant.

Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

FSCC is committed to providing a workplace and educational environment, as well as other benefits, programs, and activities, that are free from discrimination and harassment based on a protected category, and retaliation for engaging in a protected activity. To ensure compliance with federal, state, and local civil rights laws and regulations, and to affirm its commitment to promoting the goals of fairness and equity in all aspects of the educational program or activity, FSCC has developed internal policies and procedures that provide a prompt, fair, and impartial process for those involved in an allegation of discrimination or harassment on the basis of protected class status, and for allegations of retaliation.

FSCC values and upholds the equal dignity of all members of its community and strives to balance the rights of the parties in the grievance process during what is often a difficult time for all those involved. The core purpose of this policy is the prohibition of all forms of discrimination. When discrimination takes the form of harassment or, in the case of sex-based discrimination, it can encompass sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, sexual exploitation, dating violence, or domestic violence. When an alleged violation of this nondiscrimination policy is reported, the allegations are subject to resolution using FSCC's Title IX process as detailed below.

When the Respondent is a member of the FSCC community, a formal complaint may be filed and a grievance process may be available regardless of the status of the Complainant, who may or may not be a member of the FSCC community. This community includes, but is not limited to, students, student organizations, faculty, administrators, staff, and third parties such as guests, visitors, volunteers, vendors, and campers. The procedure may be applied to incidents, to patterns, and/or to the campus climate, all of which may be addressed and investigated in accordance with this policy.

The Dean of Students serves as the Title IX Coordinator and oversees implementation of the FSCC's policy on equal opportunity, harassment, and nondiscrimination. The contact information for the Title IX Coordinator is:

Vanessa Poyner, Dean of Students/Title IX Coordinator

Bailey Hall office

The Title IX Coordinator has the primary responsibility for coordinating FSCC's efforts related to the intake, investigation, resolution, and implementation of supportive measures to stop, remedy, and prevent discrimination, harassment, and retaliation prohibited under this policy. All parties will be provided with a comprehensive electronic document detailing options and resources, which the Title IX Coordinator may also go over in person with the parties, as appropriate (excluding an Unaffiliated Complainant in the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator).

Notice or complaints of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation may be made using any of the following options:

- 1) File a complaint with, or give verbal notice to, the Title IX Coordinator (or deputies/Officials with Authority) as listed above. Such a report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number or email address, or by mail, to the office listed for the Title IX Coordinator or any other official listed.
- 2) Report online, using the reporting form posted at www.fortscott.edu (Title IX Grievance Report). Anonymous reports are accepted but can give rise to a need to investigate to determine if the parties can be identified. If not, no further formal action is taken, though measures intended to protect the community may be enacted. FSCC tries to provide supportive measures to all Complainants, which may be impossible with an anonymous report that does not identify the Complainant.

Because reporting carries no obligation to initiate a formal response, and because FSCC respects Complainant requests to dismiss complaints unless there is a compelling threat to health and/or safety, the Complainant is largely in control and should not fear a loss of confidentiality by making a report that allows the FSCC to discuss and/or provide supportive measures.

FSCC will offer and implement appropriate and reasonable supportive measures to the parties upon notice of alleged harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation (excluding an Unaffiliated Complainant in the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator).

Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate and as reasonably available. They are offered without fee or charge to the parties to restore or preserve access to FSCC's education program or activity, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties and/or the FSCC's educational environment, and/or to deter harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation.

The Title IX Coordinator promptly makes supportive measures available to the parties upon receiving notice or a complaint. At the time that supportive measures are offered, FSCC will inform the Complainant, in writing, that they may file a formal complaint with the FSCC either at that time or in the future, if they have not done so already. The Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to ensure that their wishes are taken into account with respect to the supportive measures that are planned and implemented.

Fort Scott Community College will maintain the confidentiality of the supportive measures, provided that confidentiality does not impair the FSCC's ability to provide those supportive measures. FSCC will act to ensure as minimal an academic/occupational impact on the parties as possible. The FSCC will implement measures in a way that does not unreasonably burden the other party.

Violation will result in immediate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the college.

FSCC has long recognized that an academic community is harmed in many ways by the abuse of alcohol and the use of other drugs. This high-risk behavior is exemplified by decreased productivity, serious health problems, strained and social interactions as well as forms of vandalism. Problems associated with the illicit use and abuse of substances have a pervasive impact upon the academic community and are not associated with a single socioeconomic group or age level. The process of education and learning are especially impaired by alcohol and the use of illicit drugs.

Individuals found to have violated the college's alcohol policy will be subject to discipline or criminal charges, even if the student is of legal age. Any student who appears to be intoxicated while on campus will be subject to disciplinary action. The local police will determine whether a student's behavior merits arrest or medical attention. Students in campus housing may not keep empty alcohol containers in any campus housing room. Alcohol containers found in a resident's room will be poured out and confiscated. Students in campus housing are responsible for their visitors. If the student is a minor, law enforcement may issue a Minor in Possession citation. A student found in violation of the College's drug policy must complete a drug awareness course. The student must complete the online four-hour course, monitored by the Dean of Students, within 15 days of the date the penalty is issued. Disciplinary or criminal charges may be filed against the student(s) or staff involved. Room inspections may encompass, but are not limited to, an individual room, whole apartment, or entire facility. A student found in violation of the College's drug policy must complete a drug awareness course. The student must complete the online four-hour course, monitored by the Dean of Students, within 15 days of the date the penalty is issued.
